

Cyber Studies PROGRAMME

Katri Tammsaar

Post: Research Facilitator

Email: katri.tammsaar@politics.ox.ac.uk

Katri Tammsaar (M.Ed., M.Sc.) is the Cyber Studies Programme's part-time Research Facilitator. She is based in Estonia, where she supports research activities and the organisation of international training sessions. She also works as a Business Analyst at the Estonian Centre of Registers and Information Systems, focusing on cross-border data exchange and the development of XML standard structures for the European Certificate of Succession and its application. Previously, she worked as the International Collaboration Coordinator at Tallinn University's School of Digital Technologies. She was also a project manager for various international research and development projects.