

Eric B. Haney

Department of Politics and International Relations
Manor Road Building
University of Oxford
Oxford OX1 3UQ
eric.haney@politics.ox.ac.uk
+44 07784398352

EDUCATION

University of Oxford Oxford - 2014 - 2018 (expected)

DPhil International Relations Supervisor: Prof. Edward Keene

The Authenticity Game: Strategy, Law, and Custom in the Emergence of International Society.

London School of Economics London - 2012 - 2013

MSc Comparative Politics: Nationalism and Ethnicity (Distinction). Supervisor: Prof. John Breuilly

Explaining the Civic Zeitgeist: Civilization, Radicalisation, and Emergency Law in the UK.

Goucher College Baltimore - 2007 - 2011

BA Political Science (Honors) with Studio Art. Magna Cum Laude.

Hansard Society at London School of Economics - London - 2010

Lent Term Scholar. Ministry of Justice Intern.

ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

Oxford Brookes University

Oxford - Sept 2015 to Nov 2018

Associate Lecturer in International Relations

- Lectured all years of undergraduates on IR theory, humanitarian intervention in history, security studies, research methods, and rational choice approaches to IR.
- Collaboratively redesigned the research methods course to introduce students to methodology and epistemology in a problem-focused, case study approach.
- Delivered the Rational Choice lecture to 100+ undergraduates for two years.
- Set exams and formative work. Marked 80-120 scripts per semester with constructive feedback.
- Supported lectures with seminars, and mentored several individual students on developing research proposals for undergraduate dissertations.

Worcester College

Oxford - Hilary 2016

Tutor - International Relations

- Supervised two students in IR Theory and International Relations in the Cold War.
- Tailored essays and readings to students' interests in issues of empire and decolonization in IR.

Advanced Studies in England

Bath - Aug 2016 to May 2017

Tutor - Social Sciences

- Taught two seminar courses on the political sociology of "Patterns of Power" and "Multiculturalism and Diversity in Great Britain."
- Designed syllabi, set and marked coursework, guided the re-structuring of the program's social science course offerings.

- Hertford College Oxford - Trinity 2016
Tutor - American Politics
 - Supervised a second year Politics, Philosophy and Economics student in American Politics.
- UNIQ Summer School Oxford - Summer 2015
Politics, Philosophy and Economics Tutor
 - Introduced state school A-Level students to the Oxford tutorial system, helping them to work through interdisciplinary questions on economic and political inequality.
- Global Village Project Atlanta - 2012, 2014
English Tutor, Summer Program Coordinator
 - Tutored refugee women in English reading, writing, maths, and history, building skills for careers and university education.
 - Coordinated the first summer school for the Global Village School, including designing curriculum, recruiting staff, securing external funding, and overseeing administration.
- Goucher College Baltimore - 2010
Teaching Assistant - Free Speech
 - Co-taught an interdisciplinary course on freedom of speech issues in a global context with the president of the college and the head of the history faculty.
 - Led seminar groups, set and marked papers, and tutored students one-on-one on supplementary topics in politics and law.

CONFERENCE PAPERS & INVITED TALKS

- International Studies Association General Meeting San Francisco - 2018
 "Information Panics and Emerging Orders: How Intermediaries Shape Structure by Narrating Crisis."
- Oxford Legal History Forum Oxford - 2018
- International Studies Association General Meeting Baltimore - 2017
 "Negotiating the Nation: Coordination Games, Common Knowledge, and Intermediaries of Empire"
- History and Theory in International Relations Colloquium, LSE London - 2016
- Brasenose College "Blurbs" Joint Graduate & Fellows Seminar Oxford - 2017
 "The Authenticity Game - making a world of nations, from the outside in." with Prof. Masooda Bano
- International Studies Association General Meeting Atlanta - 2016
 "Separate but Peaceful? Customary Law, Multiculturalism, Standards of Civilization Inside the State."

SELECTED FURTHER EXPERIENCE

- Department of Politics and International Relations Oxford - Jan 2015-Oct 2016
Departmental Administrative Assistant
 - Responsible for aiding the department with knowledge exchange, promotion and communication of Oxford research with the policy world and the public.
 - Organized three conferences involving academics, representatives of government and media.
- Ministry of Justice London - 2010
Intern - Justice Engagement Team, Human Rights Division, Constitution Directorate
 - Helped to oversee roughly GBP £600,000 in grants for legal aid, and assisted with consultation for the Green Paper for a UK Bill of Rights, while producing a related dissertation for the Hansard Society.

- Worked in a four-member team to plan and pilot a new online tool providing legal resources to underserved communities, and to enhance public familiarity with the law.

Goucher Student Government Association

Baltimore - 2009 - 2011

Treasurer (2009), Parliamentarian (2010-11)

- Served on a seven-member board charged with representing student interests to the administration and local community.
- Oversaw USD $250,000 per annum in student funds.
- Created and funded an $120,000 per annum student jobs program with matching funds from local businesses.
- Drafted, ran a consultation on, and ratified a new student Bill of Rights, working with college counsel to ensure that legal mechanisms were available to air student grievances within the framework of the new Bill.

Office of Student Engagement, Goucher College - Baltimore - 2008 - 2010

Connections Peer Facilitator

- Led weekly discussions with first-year residential communities on crucial topics in university life, from study skills to health and community engagement.
- Helped to mediate disputes, to offer one-on-one welfare guidance, and to represent student needs to the college administration, and visa-versa.