

EDUCATION

MPhil International Relations, University of Oxford 2022 – 2024 (expected)

- Convener of the Unofficial Peace and Conflict Resolution Discussion Group
- Courses: Experimental Methods; Causal Inference; Intermediate Statistics; Collective Political Violence; Politics of East Asia
- Thesis project: Logics of Japanese post-war apologies (to be tested using an experiment and case study)
- Project Access Mentor: Helping underprivileged students from Global South to get into top UK universities
- Target Schools Student Ambassador: Helping UK state school students get into University of Oxford

Bachelor of Journalism, The University of Hong Kong 2018 – 2022

- First Class Honours; Majors: Journalism, Politics & Public Administration
- Scholarships: Sir Man Kam Lo/Jardine, K.K. Ho Prize, HKU Worldwide Undergraduate Student Exchange
- Courses: Advanced Seminar on Strategy and Politics; Data science; Politics of the Global South; Southeast Asian Politics; China and the World; International Relations of East Asia; United States foreign policy; Politics of the EU; Politics of Japan

EXPERIENCE

Research Assistant 2021 – Now

Department of Politics and Public Administration, The University of Hong Kong

- Designed, implemented, and analyzed an original nationally representative survey experiment in China and Japan (6300+ subjects) on foreign aid and altruism
- Coded and analyzed strategies in English and Chinese foreign policy documents
- Scraped 110,000+ academic articles, processed and coded 1200+ types of nationalism
- Compiled databases and created event timelines on international crises
- Produced literature reviews on asymmetrical trade, political psychology, de-escalation, and US-China relations
- Produced an internal report on ChatGPT's capabilities for research

Freelance Journalist 2020 – Now

Published articles on East Asian politics and local news, which involved public policy analysis, interviews with experts and officials, archival research, and dataset compilation, such as the below:

- “Are Yasukuni Shrine Visits a Sign of Rising Nationalism in Japan?” The Diplomat.
- “The Resilience of Japanese Whaling” The Diplomat.
- “Parsing China's 'Cancel Culture.'” The Diplomat.
- “Troubled by the horrors of war from afar, a Ukrainian restaurant in Hong Kong finds solidarity and support in the city.” Hong Kong Free Press.
- “Facing up to the challenge: how Hong Kong's mask manufacturers managed to survive the competition” Hong Kong Free Press.

Deputy Students Editor 2021 – Now

E-International Relations

- Curating, copyediting, and publishing student essays; and advising associate editors on editorial process
- Compiled resources for a book on international relations, and research methods

Intern 2021

Asia Pacific Mission for Migrants

- Led a project that studied mental health awareness among domestic workers, and implemented an original vignette survey, in Tagalog and English
- Studied opinions and effects of government policy towards foreign domestic workers
- Conducted workshops with NGO leaders on digital tools to improve outreach

Director, Editor of Whaling Documentary 2020 – 2021

Title: “Anti-anti Whaling: Japan's Resumption of the Hunt”

The University of Hong Kong (with funding) Link: here.

- Directed a team of 20+ people and produced a documentary on Japanese whaling
- Unpacked the origins and implications of the Japanese government's policy on whaling
- Conducted on-ground interviews with officials and experts, paired with archival research
- Created animated diagrams to show how various political organizations are related to one another

Co-founder, Editor-in-Chief 2020

Malachite (University Magazine)

- Led a team of seven and oversaw all content production, including the editorial calendar, design, and copyediting
- Wrote and published several articles on campus life
- Created original animations for promotion

Intern

2020

Grassroots Future / Hong Kong Centre for Pro Bono Service

- Created a documentary that captured the lives of three refugees in Hong Kong, which was screened at Refugee Week
- Communicated and offered support to refugees stuck in airports

Director, Editor of Hong Kong Inequality Documentary

2018 – 2019

Tung Wah Group of Hospitals, The University of Hong Kong

- Led a team to produce a documentary on inequality and cultural diversity in Hong Kong, as part of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals Action Campaign (screened at UN General Assembly)
- Conducted interviews with local residents, and analyzed and visualized statistics on poverty
- Held videomaking workshops for public school students

Committee Head of Cambodia Service Trip

2017

Love Cambodia

- Led a team of 20+ to construct toilets, wells, and a school building
- Fundraised for and promoted the project by organizing a basketball competition, and a Mid-Autumn Festival Celebration

VOLUNTEERING

St Peter's College Middle Common Room Committee Member

2023 – Now

Secretary of the Hong Kong Scholars Association

2023 – Now

Social Sciences Faculty Student Advisor

2021 – 2022

SKILLS

Languages English (native), Cantonese (fluent), Mandarin Chinese (professional), Japanese (N2)

Coding R (statistical analysis, text analysis, machine learning, data visualization), SPSS, L^AT_EX

Media Photography, Videography, Adobe Suite e.g. Photoshop, Illustrator, After Effects (Portfolio here).